23. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Beverly Doerflein, in the office of Representative Paul S. Tribble (R., Va.), to see if any decision had been made as to whether the Congressman would be willing to spend some time [REDACTED] prior to his dinner engagement which he had already accepted. She said that they were still working on it and that she would get back to me shortly.

24. [REDACTED] CONSTITUENT John Silk, in the office of Senator Sam Nunn (D., Ga.), called with a constituent problem. A rather influential constituent in the oil business believes that ballast tanks in oil tankers are being used to smuggle oil and wants to go to Saudi Arabia to investigate it and asked if the Senator could arrange for a special passport and clearances from CIA. I explained to Silk the problems involved which he clearly understood and said he would pass the information on to the constituent.

25. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Placed a call to Barry Schochet, in the office of Senator Richard B. Stone (D., Fla.), to follow up on the Senator's request for a briefing on the Liberty. I had called previously and left a message but Schochet had not returned my call. I left a message and he called back later and said he would try to work up a time to brief Senator Stone.

27. [REDACTED] LIAISON Hans Binnendijk, staff member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called to request one copy of "Communist Aid to the Less Developed Countries of the Free World, 1976." A copy was forwarded to him.

28. [REDACTED] LIAISON Mike Craig, in the office of Representative David Emery (R., Maine), called to request one copy of "A Dollar Cost Comparison of Soviet and U.S. Defense Activities, 1966-1976." The publication was forwarded to him.
